

LADY IN RED - side

I sat up one nite walkin a boardin house screamin/cryin/the ghost of another woman
Who waz missin what i waz miss
I wanted to jump up outta my bones
& be done wit myself
Leave me alone
& go in the wind
It was too much
I fell into a numbness
Til the only tree i cd see
Took me up in her branches
Held me in the breeze
Made me dawn dew
That chill at daybreak
The sun wrapped me up swingin rose light everywhere
The sky lade over me like a million men
I waz cold/ i waz burnin up/ a child
& endlessly weavin garments for the moon
Wit my tears
